ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

Throughout the month of May we shared various photos, links and videos celebrating Asian Pacific American Heritage Month on our Facebook page. We also had the pleasure of doing a phone interview with Vickie Sakurada Schaepler. During the interview, we learned about her family history, the history of Japanese Americans in Nebraska, the Japanese Hall and what she envisions for its future.

NSHSF FUNDRAISING PROJECT

From establishing the territory in 1854 to celebrating our state's centennial in 1967, Nebraskans united to mark their history. Scattered across our state are more than 250 monuments, markers, statues, and plaques to the exploration, the cultures and their conflicts, the settlement, and the organization of Nebraska. They are found in our cities and along our highways and country roads, but also in our forests, our fields, and our hills. They mark history where it happened.
