Statewide Grant Site Visit - Durham Museum

On February 26, 2025, we proudly presented a $1,500 grant to The Durham Museum as part of the NSHSF's Statewide Grant Program. These funds

During our visit, Stratford Elementary students from Bennington enjoyed the Smithsonian Antarctic Dinosaurs exhibit, featuring over 60 fossils and interactive help cover admission costs for students from Title I schools, ensuring more young learners can experience the museum's educational exhibits. Alison Sobczyk, Education Services Manager, and Brianna Lane, Senior Manager of Donor Relations, along with the teachers of visiting students, graciously accepted the SGP "Big Check."

displays. They also explored a locomotive, pioneer schoolroom, and pioneer house.

Thanks to Alison and Brianna for a fantastic tour! We're proud to support education through our Statewide Grant Program, making enriching experiences like these accessible to students.

And of course, Sue and Teresa couldn't resist joining in on the fun by posing with a dinosaur!
