

Where Nebraska's History Finds New Paths -
Preserving the Past with Purpose since 1942

FALL 2025 APPLICATION

Funding Preferences for Fall 2025: Preference is given to non-profit organizations operating in and serving local communities in Nebraska. For the Fall 2025 cycle, grants up to $1,000 will be awarded. We may not fully fund your request so please seek other funding sources while awaiting our decision. The focus for the fall cycle is Education and Access and the main areas for grant distribution will be:

- School visits, field trips and transportation
- Youth and family engagement
- Festival or milestone event support
- Professional development and conference registrations

Application Information and Deadlines: Submit the completed application with any supporting material including estimates for this grant by September 15, 2025. Grantees will be notified in October 2025. Only one application/project per organization will be considered.
